

Naam: dr. Jona Specker
Functie: Wetenschappelijk docent
Telefoon: 010 704 30 62
Email: j.specker@erasmusmc.nl
Kamer:

Publicaties

Specker J. Imagining Moral Enhancement Practices. Rotterdam: Erasmus Medical Center; 2018. <https://epubs.ogc.nl/?epub=j.specker>

Specker J, Focquaert F, Sterckx S, Schermer MHN. Forensic practitioners' views on the role of moral development and progress in forensic psychiatric care practices. Neuroethics. 2018. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s12152-018-9363-x>

Specker J, Focquaert F, Sterckx S, Schermer MHN. Forensic practitioners' expectations and moral views regarding neurobiological interventions in offenders with mental disorders. BioSocieties. 2018;13(1):304-21. <https://doi.org/10.1057/s41292-017-0069-9>

Specker J, Schermer MHN, Reiner PB. Public attitudes towards moral enhancement: Evidence that means matter morally. Neuroethics. 2017;10(3):405-17. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s12152-017-9340-9>

Specker J. "Morality pills": het moral enhancement-debat belicht vanuit de praktijk. Podium voor Bio-ethiek. 2017;24(4):9-12.

Specker J, Schermer MHN. Imagining moral bioenhancement practices. Drawing inspiration from moral education, public health ethics, and forensic psychiatry. Camb Q Healthc Ethic. 2017;26(3):415-26. <https://doi.org/10.1017/S0963180116001080>

Specker J, Focquaert F, Raus K, Sterckx S, Schermer MHN. The ethical desirability of moral bioenhancement: A review of reasons. BMC Medical Ethics. 2014;15(1):67. <https://doi.org/10.1186/1472-6939-15-67>

Raus K, Focquaert F, Schermer MHN, Specker J, Sterckx S. On defining moral enhancement: A clarificatory taxonomy. Neuroethics. 2014;7(3):263-73. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s12152-014-9205-4>